Students sitting for the major PSLE and 'O' Level examinations this year are all set by now to ace what they have been studying hard for. But are they really ready?

He attained an aggregate of 242 for his PSLE.

A satisfied parent, Mr Ko Chiu Sing, expressed his appreciation to all the staff involved in the tuition programme who assisted both his children to obtain satisfactory year-end results. He added, "As a matter of fact, we are very happy that Johann obtained 1 A and 2 A* for the 3 subjects." Ko Johann, who attended the PSLE Intensive Revision Workshop, attained an aggregate of 251 for his PSLE.

The PSLE Intensive Revision Workshop will commence from 26th July to 28th September 2009. The sessions will be held twice a week, 2 hours per session for 8 weeks. The subjects offered are Mathematics, English and Science.
